COLLEGE ORATORS CONTEST

New York, Feb. 28.—The picked debaters of Columbia, Cornell and the University of Pennsylvania met in forensic tilts tonight simultaneously in this city, Ithaca and Philadelphia. These contests are held by the Intercollegiate Debating League formed by the three institutions concerned in 1904 and renewed last year for another three years.

For the first time since the triangular debates began, a woman student, in the person of Miss Elizabeth E. Cook, of the Cornell Law College, participated in the league contests. One of the Columbia teams was likewise interesting from the fact that it has a full-blooded Chinaman as one of its members. He is V. K. W. Koo, a junior in the college. Koo is the son of a Chinese mandarin and was brought up in Shanghai. He prepared for college in China and entered Columbia in the fall of 1905.

The three colleges selected as the question for debate: "Resolved, That all corporations doing an interstate business should be licensed by the Federal Government, constitutionality conceded."

HANGED TO LIMB.

Negro's Body Found Suspended From Elm Tree.

Conroe, Tex., Feb. 28.—"Warning to Negroes Found Prowling in White Folks' Houses." This placard was tied to the feet of a negro, Charley Scott, whose dead body was found swinging to a big elm tree at this place. The negro, who was eighteen years old and was regarded by many as feeble minded, was quietly lynched by unknown parties. No noise was made and no shots were fired and nothing was known of the lynching save by those taking part until Friday morning, when the sun revealed the gruesome sight of a dead body dangling and waving pendulum fashion by the breeze.

A neighbor named Willett heard Mrs. Powell Alley, wife of a leading white citizen, scream before daylight Thursday morning. He rushed over in time to catch Scott emerging from the house. The negro could give no explanation of his presence. Mr. Alley was away from home. A warrant charging criminal assault was sworn out, but the negro was released on bond. He was last seen alive at 8 o'clock Thursday evening at a local hotel seeking his grandmother, who cooked there.

WHAT COLQUITT SAYS.

International Is Ample Able to Make Improvements.

Austin, Feb. 28.—In an authorized interview concerning the International and Great Northern railway receivership, Railroad Commissioner Colquitt, among other things, says that in 1893, just after this road came out of receiver's hands, the report for that year shows it earned an average of $5.113 gross per mile of road. At that time the road ran from Longview to Laredo and from Palestine to Houston. Since then it has extended from Spring to Fort Worth, paralleling other roads. This latter extension was constructed under another name, but was subsequently consolidated with the International and Great Northern and mortgage bonds were issued to pay for the construction of the same. Under the terms of the mortgage and consolidation act the amount of bonds that could be issued was $20,000 per mile. First and second mortgage bonds were selling for 127, or a premium of 27 on the $100; second mortgage bonds were bringing $10; hence an issue of $10,000 would make bonds bring $23, 800 per mile.

Mr. Colquitt says that the commission's report for 1907 shows that the gross earnings per mile since 1893 was increased more than 50 per cent. These figures are to show that the road is in much better financial condition than it was when it came out of the hands of the receiver in 1893. Commission has been receiving a number of complaints about physical conditions which prompted the order.

Concluding, Mr. Colquitt says: "The physical condition of the road justified the railroad commission in issuing its order requiring improvements."

New York, Feb. 28.—Purification of dishwater is to be undertaken by the Women's Municipal league.

INITIATIVE AND REFERENDUM

Portland, Ore., Feb. 28.—The case of the State of Oregon against the Pacific States Telephone Company and the Sunset Telephone Company, involving a dispute over the constitutionality of Oregon's famous initiative and referendum law, came up for argument before Judge Cleland in the circuit court. Both sides were represented by eminent counsel.

Owing to the important issue involved the decision in this case is awaited with much interest. The suit is to collect $9,500 in taxes said to be due from the telephone company in this county under the franchise tax law. The company is resisting the collections on the ground that the initiative and referendum plan, under the provisions of which the tax was levied, is in violation of the constitution of the United States.

SHAH'S CLOSE CALL.

Three Persians Killed by Bomb Intended For Ruler.

Teheran, Feb. 28.—An attempt was made in this city to assassinate the shah by bombs. His majesty was not hurt. Three out ridders who accompanied him were killed. The bombs were hurled Friday afternoon.

The shah owes his escape to the precautions taken to protect him from just such an attempt as was made. He was on his way to a nearby town, where he intended to pass a few days. The procession left the palace traveling on a narrow street, when two bombs were hurled down at it from the roof of a house. One exploded in the air, but the other struck the ground near the shah's auto. This missile in exploding killed three outriders, sile in exploding killed three outriders, wounded the chauffeur and a score of bystanders and shattered the vehicle. The shah, however, was not in his auto. He had taken the precaution to send his motor car on ahead and ride himself in a carriage further in the rear of the procession. The motor car was a closed one, and it was thought the sovereign was inside. As soon as the shah heard the explosion he alighted hurriedly from the carriage and entered a neighboring house. Here he remained quietly while while attendants sent word for a detachment of troops. Soldiers hurried to the scene and formed in front of a house where the shah was. He then came out and surrounded by a big body guard returned to the palace. The house from which the bombs were thrown and buildings nearby were searched by the police, but no arrests made.

REPUDIATES STATEMENT.

"I Did Not Kill the Priest, He Fell Dead," Says Alito.

Denver, Feb. 28.—Giuseppe Alito, the slayer of Father Leo Heinrichs, after conferring with Robert H. Widcombe, the counsel, appointed by the court to conduct his defense, repudiated the signed statement made by him in jail at Colorado Springs as well as other confessions. "I did not kill the priest, he fell dead," Alito declared. "I am a Catholic and had gone to church to pray. I did not go there to receive the sacrament. While I was kneeling the priest came along and put the sacrament in my mouth. It is against the rules of the Catholic church to take the host without first having been to confession, so I spat it out. The priest fell back and I heard exerybody jump. It being a strange place to me, I was afraid and ran out."

Alito is in poor condition physically.

Haupt Loses Suit.

Washington, Feb. 28.—Professor Haupt of Philadelphia lost his suit in the District of Columbia court to restrain the secretary of war, General McKenzie and Contractor Pidon from prosecuting deep water work at Aransas Pass, Haupt claiming patent rights in single jetty system. Justice Gould refused the injunction on the grounds that it is an indirect attempt to sue the Federal government without consent of congress.

Chicago Man Shot Twice.

Chicago, Feb. 28.—Charles Koehler was shot twice and severely wounded in what the police say was a "labor quarrel." John Terry was arrested as Koehler's assailant. Frank Schuchug is held as a witness. Koehler is a member of one faction of the Teamsters' union, the two others belonging to another faction.

PRESIDENT COOK ISSUES ADDRESS TO FARMERS UNION

Call for Meeting With Kurten Local Saturday, April 4—Success of Marketing System.

To the Local Unions of Brazos County:

The regular quarterly meeting of Brazos County Union will convene with Kurten local on Saturday April 4, at 10 a. m. and I would urge all locals to be fully represented at this meeting. Brethren, the farmers' union is now passing through a crisis such as it has never passed through before. The fight for better prices for our cotton started in December, 1904, by the Farmers Union and Southern Cotton Association, has been very successful in keeping prices up to a high level and has put millions of dollars in the pockets of the southern farmer, causing all legitimate business to prosper as it never did before and it has also been a great school to the producers and has taught them that the old method of dumping all our cotton on the market in three or four months was ruinous to the producer. So the organized farmers have declared for a new system and that is to store our cotton in warehouses and sell as the world needs it and at prices that will give a profit above cost of production, and it is this new system of marketing more than the 15c price that has caused the great fight that has been going on for the past five months between the organized farmers on the one hand and the organized speculative interests on the other. They have resorted to everything imaginable to force us to part with our cotton even declaring in their mad frenzy that we had no right to keep the products that we and our children had worked for. The fight is still on, my brother, and let me beg you, don't go to sleep on the firing line. If the conditions have been such that you were forced out, now is the time to begin to change these conditions; let's start in with a determination to raise everything that we need at home as far as possible and free ourselves of debt; build us a good warehouse on the lots that we have bought and paid for; place our cotton in it and say to the world that we must have a living profit or its no sale.

I. M. Cook,
President Brazos Co. Farmers' Union.

The I. & G. N. management says the railroad commission did it and the railroad commission says I. & G. N. mismanagement did it; so there you are.

Twenty-two specific charges have been filed against District Attorney Jerome, who has been making a noise like a trust-buster. He is accused of bagging the little fish and leaving the net open for the big ones to escape.

A meeting of the Houston business league has been called to consider a proposition to establish a steamship line between that city and Mexico, Central America, South America and West Indian ports. The condition of the ship channel is said to be such as to justify the opening of the new highway for commerce.

Next Tuesday will be Mardi Gras and Lent will begin on Wednesday. The Mardi Gras festivities in New Orleans began last Thursday night. The name Mardi Gras is French for "Fat Tuesday," so called on account of the feasting and merriment of the day, contrasted with abstinence and solemnity of Lent.

Today the great fleet of battleships, cruisers and other vessels of war is leaving Callao to pursue its voyage northward. The time spent in the Peruvian chief seaport and capital has been one continued round of festivities, and the Americans were the lions of every social function. Possibly while you are reading this paragraph many a dark-eyed senorita is bidding her jackie "Adios" with a tear in her eye and a pang in her heart.

BY CARNES & WALLACE

BYRAN, TEXAS, FEBRUARY 29, 1908

If it be true that "It is a shame to endure what you can cure," the mosquito nuisance is a disgrace to any community.

Insurance Commissioner Love called a lawyer down on a statement in a brief to the effect that "irresponsible" insurance companies were doing business in Texas. The lawyer said his statement was a "hyperbole."

It has been reported heretofore that strained relations existed between Governor Campbell and Attorney General Davidson, but the governor heartily congratulated the attorney general on his victory over the Waters Pierce Oil company.

The sentiment in favor of having a primary to elect delegates to the Denver convention is almost unanimous. Give the people a chance.

The State Text Book Board has passed up to the attorney general the conundrum whether or not the American Book Company is a trust.

On this beautiful 29th day of February, while the birds are singing and the roses are blooming we quietly remind the marriageable ladies of Bryan that this is "proposals day," and there will not be another such opportunity for four long years.

The Coliseum in Ft. Worth, in which the Democratic state convention will meet in May, is 260 feet long by 176 feet wide and will comfortably seat 2,500 people. It is the largest auditorium in Texas and cost $250,000. The National Feeders' and Breeders' show will be held there March 11 to 17 inclusive.

OLD MAIDS' CONVENTION

MADE THINGS LIVELY

Given for the Benefit of Methodist Home Mission Society Under Direction of Mrs. G. W. Emory.
One of the most laughable entertainments ever given in Bryan was the Old Maids' Convention at the opera house last night, given for the benefit of the Home Mission Society of the Methodist church, and under the direction of Mrs. G. W. Emory. The meeting represented a stated convocation of the Single Blessedness Debating Society, notable from the fact that matrimony seemed to be the only subject available for discussion, and but one opinion held regarding that, it being that to wed is not only desirable but essential.

Songs, jokes and local hits were interwoven with fine effect, and a long list of marriageable men-about-town was bulletined on the stage. Roll call was answered by sentimental quotations, and the solemn ceremonies of initiation into membership of the club were carried out. It would be impossible to describe in detail all the interesting features, but the rat-killing and the work of Prof. Makeover will not soon be forgotten. The participants were appropriately costumed, and among them were three young men whose names are given below, masquerading as ladies and adding immeasurably to the fun.

Those participating in the jolly and successful affair are Mesdames Lem B. Hall, W. H. Cole, W. H. Lawrence, R. M. Wilson, W. S. Wilson, Luther Taylor, T. C. Nunn, J. Webb Howell, Misses Willie Rogers, Kate Lawrence, Ella Ray Boyle, Blanche Mize, Messrs. Milze Derden, J. D. Willis, Larry Stevens; and in the afterpart, Misses Hettie Smith, Arrie Cole, Alberta Adams, Hattie Lou Hudson, Ara Haswell, Clara Astin, Rosa Hart.

Constable C. L. Baker has returned from Hico, where he went after a prisoner. The party under arrest there proved to be the wrong man and was released.

Mr. D. C. Haley of Washington, D. C., inspector of food and drugs for the Bureau of Chemistry of the Department of Agriculture, on an official visit, was here yesterday.

President Brooks of Baylor university has just returned from a tour of all the Southern States south of Maryland and Missouri. He says he heard prohibition much discussed everywhere he went, and expresses the opinion that it is the paramount issue in all Dixie land.

DUST NUISANCE AGAIN.

Yesterday Was a Strong Reminder That Something Must Speedily be Done for the Control of Bryan's Ancient Enemy.

Yesterday was blustery and sand-stormy, and very annoying to the merchant just opening up new spring goods, as well as to every other man, woman and child with any of the five senses left. The Eagle understands the matter of street sprinkling will be taken up at the next meeting of the city council, but we would be powerful glad to see something done before that time. We understand the water is available, the city has the sprinkler and there should be no delay. The street work which has been going on for sometime appears to be about completed, and a team should be available without delay. We would like to see one put on the job today if the dust blows. Whoop up the springler and make arrangements to keep it going every day except when it rains. It will take that to keep dust down.

CONCERT AT NAVASOTA.

Prof. and Mrs. Lillebridge and Young Ladies of Texas Woman's College Visit Neighboring City.

Prof. and Mrs. Frederic Lillebridge of the Music Department of the Texas Woman's College, and four young ladies of the institution, Misses Irma Harris, Laura Dunlap, Emily Peale and Gussie Buchanan, went to Navasota yesterday afternoon and gave a concert there last night before an appreciative audience of music loving people of that city. Bryan people need not be told that an excellent program was given. The Eagle is glad to note this movement on the part of the College to make its most excellent advantages known.

B. Y. P. U. ENTERTAINMENT.

The social committee of the B. Y. P. U. had an enthusiastic meeting Wednesday night and arranged for an entertainment to be given in parlors of First Baptist church on Friday evening March 6th.

A five course dinner will be served and an exceedingly novel program of entertainment arranged for the pastime of the guests.

This will be one of the most novel and enjoyable entertainments for the pleasure of the young members of the church, the union and their friends ever given in the city and they are all urged to look forward to this evening of great pleasure in store for them, and let nothing prevent their attendance.

CLOTHING DEPARTMENT DOWN STAIRS.

Wagner & Brandon have made changes on the interior of the first floor of their store by changing the stairs and removing a reserve stock room in the rear, which greatly increases the floor space, and admits of the removal of the clothing stock, furnishing goods, etc., to the first floor. Hereafter the reserve stock and the millinery department will be found up-stairs. These changes add to the appearance and convenience of the store, and are appreciated by patrons.

DOCTOR DEATH DOOMED

President of White Hand Society
Notified

HE IS MARKED TO PERISH

Chicago Physician Receives Great Many Threatening Epistles, Will Not Visit Patients at Night and No Stranger Is Allowed In His Office.

Chicago, Feb. 28.—Dr. C. Volini, president of the White Hand society, which was organized recently to carry on a war of extermination against the Black Hand, a band of criminal Italians, is "under sentence of death."

He has received many threatening letters, the last one which he received a month ago, containing the positive message that death was awaiting him. Dr. Volini told of this in connection with the explanation of his attitude on the anti-clerical question, which is agitating the Italian colony.

Dr. Volini's practice has dwindled since these threats have been made against him, for he refuses to make any night calls. He is suspicious of every visitor and the clerk in his office has instructions to let no one pass the door who is not known. He goes armed and is guarded in all his moves by his friends.

Dr. Volini is convinced that the anti-clerical quarrel started over a personal difference between one of the leading Italians and a priest.

"The Anti-Clerical society is a national movement in Italy," he said. "Here in Chicago a society has been formed—the Giordano Bruno—which has for its object the spreading of the doctrine that the priests should not mix up in matters of local government. There is no anarchy in it. I know the man who organized it and I know that they are opposed to crime."

"The murder of Father Leo Heinrichs at Denver gave the excuse for the local priests to attack our Anti-Clerical society. It is not necessary to look in Chicago for the hatching of that plot. The priest had visited Paterson. He may have made an enemy of the anarchist there. It is probable the man who killed him was paid to travel west after him."

TERRORISTS CONVICTED.

Seven Soon Will Pay Extreme Penalty of Law.

St. Petersburg, Feb. 28.—A military court sitting in the fortress of St. Peter and St. Paul under the presidency of General Nikisoroff condemned to death seven of the terrorists charged with complicity in the attempt in this city upon the lives of Grand Duke Nicholas Nicholasievitch, a second cousin of the emperor, and H. Chitchevlovitch, the minister of justice, and sentenced three others to fifteen years' imprisonment at hard labor.

Among these upon whom the death sentence was passed a supposed Italian journalist Calvino, who has represented in St. Petersburg La Vita of Rome and Il Tempo of Milan. A special attorney was secured for him by the Italian embassy, but Calvino sprang the assistance of the embassy, saying he wished to share the fate of his comrades. Addressing the court in broken Russian, he made the sensational declaration that the passport that bore his name was not really his, and that, therefore, he desired to be tried as a Russian subject. All efforts on the part of the court to induce him to disclose his real name and status proved unavailing.

Two women were also sentenced to death and one to imprisonment. The accused all refused counsel, but were represented by lawyers appointed by the court.

NO BANQUET FOR THEM.

Couple of Interstate Commissioners Politely Refuse Invitation.

Des Moines, Ia., Feb. 28.—Interstate Commerce Commissioners Clark and Lano positively but politely refused an invitation of the Greater Des Moines committee to attend a banquet in their honor while in this city for a rate hearing. The invitation was formally tendered. The basis of refusal was the interstate commerce commissioners did not feel they could accept any courtesies whatever at the hands of either side to a controversy on matters upon which they are to pass judgment.

Postoffice Appropriation Bill.

Washington, Feb. 28.—The house committee on postoffices and postroads voted to report favorably the postoffice appropriation bill. The bill, as revised by the committee, carries a total of $220,765,292, which is $8,674,199 more than was appropriated for the currency fiscal year.

Court Is Invalid.

Jefferson City, Mo., Feb. 28.—An opinion written by Judge Gantt was handed down by the supreme court holding that the law creating the court or general sessions in the city of St. Louis is unconstitutional and the court is invalid and void.

Grace For Land Register.

New Orleans, Feb. 28.—Practically complete returns from Tuesday's Democratic state primary elections show that F. H. Grace of Iberville has been nominated for state register of land office.

Playing Season.

New York, Feb. 28.—The playing season of the National Baseball league begins April 14 and ends Oct. 7, with 154 scheduled games.

By the accidental discharge of his shotgun while hunting D. S. Besland, an alderman of Natchez, Miss., was shot in the heart.

MISS CHARLOTTE GALLOWAY DEAD.

Well Beloved Bryan Lady Passed Away at St. Mary's Infirmary - Buried Here Yesterday.

Miss Charlotte Galloway died Thursday evening at 7 o'clock, at St. Mary's Infirmary in Galveston, where she has been for several months owing to her invalid condition. Miss Galloway was 82 years and 11 months old, and was a native of South Carolina, and later lived in Georgia. She came to Bryan many years ago with the family of Judge Evans, and has been a resident of this city for more than forty years. So far as the Eagle has learned, she leaves no relatives.

Miss Galloway was a member of the Methodist church, and a devout and sweet spirited christian lady whose life was an inspiration to all who came within its influence. She had many warm friends and her death has brought sorrow to all hearts. The remains were brought here from Galveston yesterday afternoon and laid to rest at the city cemetery, Rev. J. B. Turrentine conducting the service in the presence of an assemblage of friends.

PLANNING TABERNACLE MEETING.

Rev. Challenor informs the Eagle that the congregation of the Christian church has begun planning actively for their tabernacle meeting in May. Evangelist J. B. Boen, now engaged in a successful meeting at Joplin, Mo., will be here with his singer, Mr. Conrad, to assist the pastor in this meeting.

Indigestion

Stomach trouble is but a symptom of, and not in itself a true disease. We think of Dyspepsia, Heartburn, and Indigestion as real diseases, yet they are symptoms only of a certain specific Nerve sickness—nothing else. It was this fact that first correctly led Dr. Shoop in the creation of that now very popular Stomach Remedy—Dr. Shoop's Restorative. Going direct to the stomach nerves, alone brought that success and favor to Dr. Shoop and his Restorative. Without that original and highly vital principle, no such lasting accomplishments were ever to be had. For stomach distress, bloating, biliousness, bad breath and sallow complexion, try Dr. Shoop's Restorative—Tablets or Liquid—and see for yourself what it can and will do. We sell and cheerfully recommend
